

We don't want to store up stuff in barns like the rich farmer! Those things don't last. God says to store up treasure in heaven by loving people. God's rewards last forever!

